

Timetable*:

- Staff and students travel independently to Warsaw over the weekend of the 20/21 January 2024
- Informal meeting/supper evening of the 21st
- Workshop introduction and formation of studios 9.00am Monday 22nd January.
- Monday 22nd to Friday 26th design studios work on their specific briefs and manage their own programme of lectures and visits specific to their studio themes. In addition, there will be a daily meeting of all studios together . Plus, communal evening lectures , presentations, visits and discussions.
- Saturday 27th Tours of Warsaw and social event
- Sunday 28th Possible trip to Krakow and or border.
- Monday 29th to Wednesday 31st completion of design work in studios and preparation of exhibition.
- Thursday 1st February installation of exhibition and opening in partnership with NRC with invited guests and VIPs. Including presentations, speeches and reception. Incorporates the formal launch of the new KHSA MA in Architecture and Urban Design led by Ryan Lock
- Friday 2nd February. Detailed presentations of studios work and reviews followed by general symposium and discussion concluding with next steps and lessons learned.
- Workshop finishes Friday evening, exhibition is dismantled, packed and leaves for Lviv
- Exhibition opening on the 5th February in Lviv in partnership with NRC with invited guests and VIPs

*There can still be changes in the timetable.